The Chairman of the Supreme Political Council issues a decision to establish the Humanitarian Operations Coordination Center (HOCC)

The decision consisted of four articles:

The first article stated the establishment of a center called the Humanitarian Operations Coordination Center (HOCC) under the supervision of the office of the Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces, with legal personality, its main headquarters in the capital Sana'a.

The second article stated that "the center contributes to alleviate the human impacts and consequence (through neutralizing civilians, civilian objects) in the theater of military operations (land, sea, and air), through adherence to Islamic Teachings and compliance with International Humanitarian Law and other relevant international laws and conventions in a manner that does not conflict with the interests of the Republic of Yemen or harm it."

The third article

A- Communicate and coordinate internally and externally with all parties, governmental and non-governmental entities and relevant international organizations.

B- Include representatives from the relevant competent authorities as needed.

Article four stated that this decision shall be effective from the date of its issuance and shall be published in the Official Gazette.
